TROJANAIRE

1966

Florence Berry

Mrs. Berry
You are with out the doubt one of the nicest teachers here at Pharoa. I hope I haven't been a brat in P.E. I've really and truely enjoy it. Good luck and may God guide yours steps in the coming future. Always

THE 52nd EDITION

OF THE

TROJANAIRE

Mrs. Berry,
You old bagpuss.
Yours,
Truly

Mrs. Berry,
I'm a real nice teacher whom I've enjoyed being a student under. I'm really not that good at sports etc. but I like to try. Thanks for trying to help me. I do appreciate
P.E. isn't my subject.
Good Luck

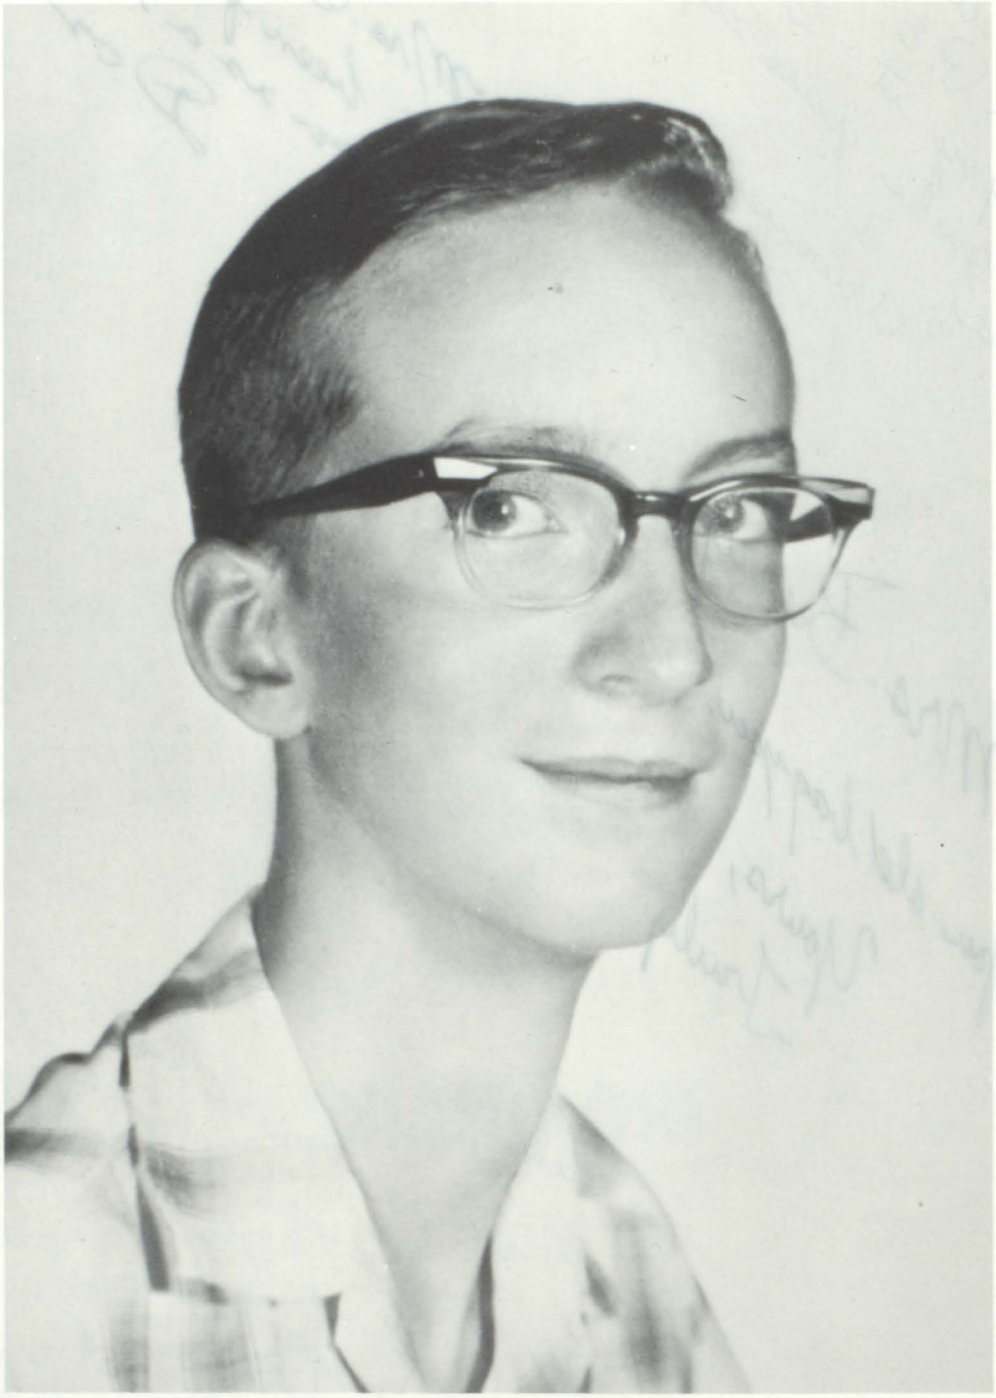
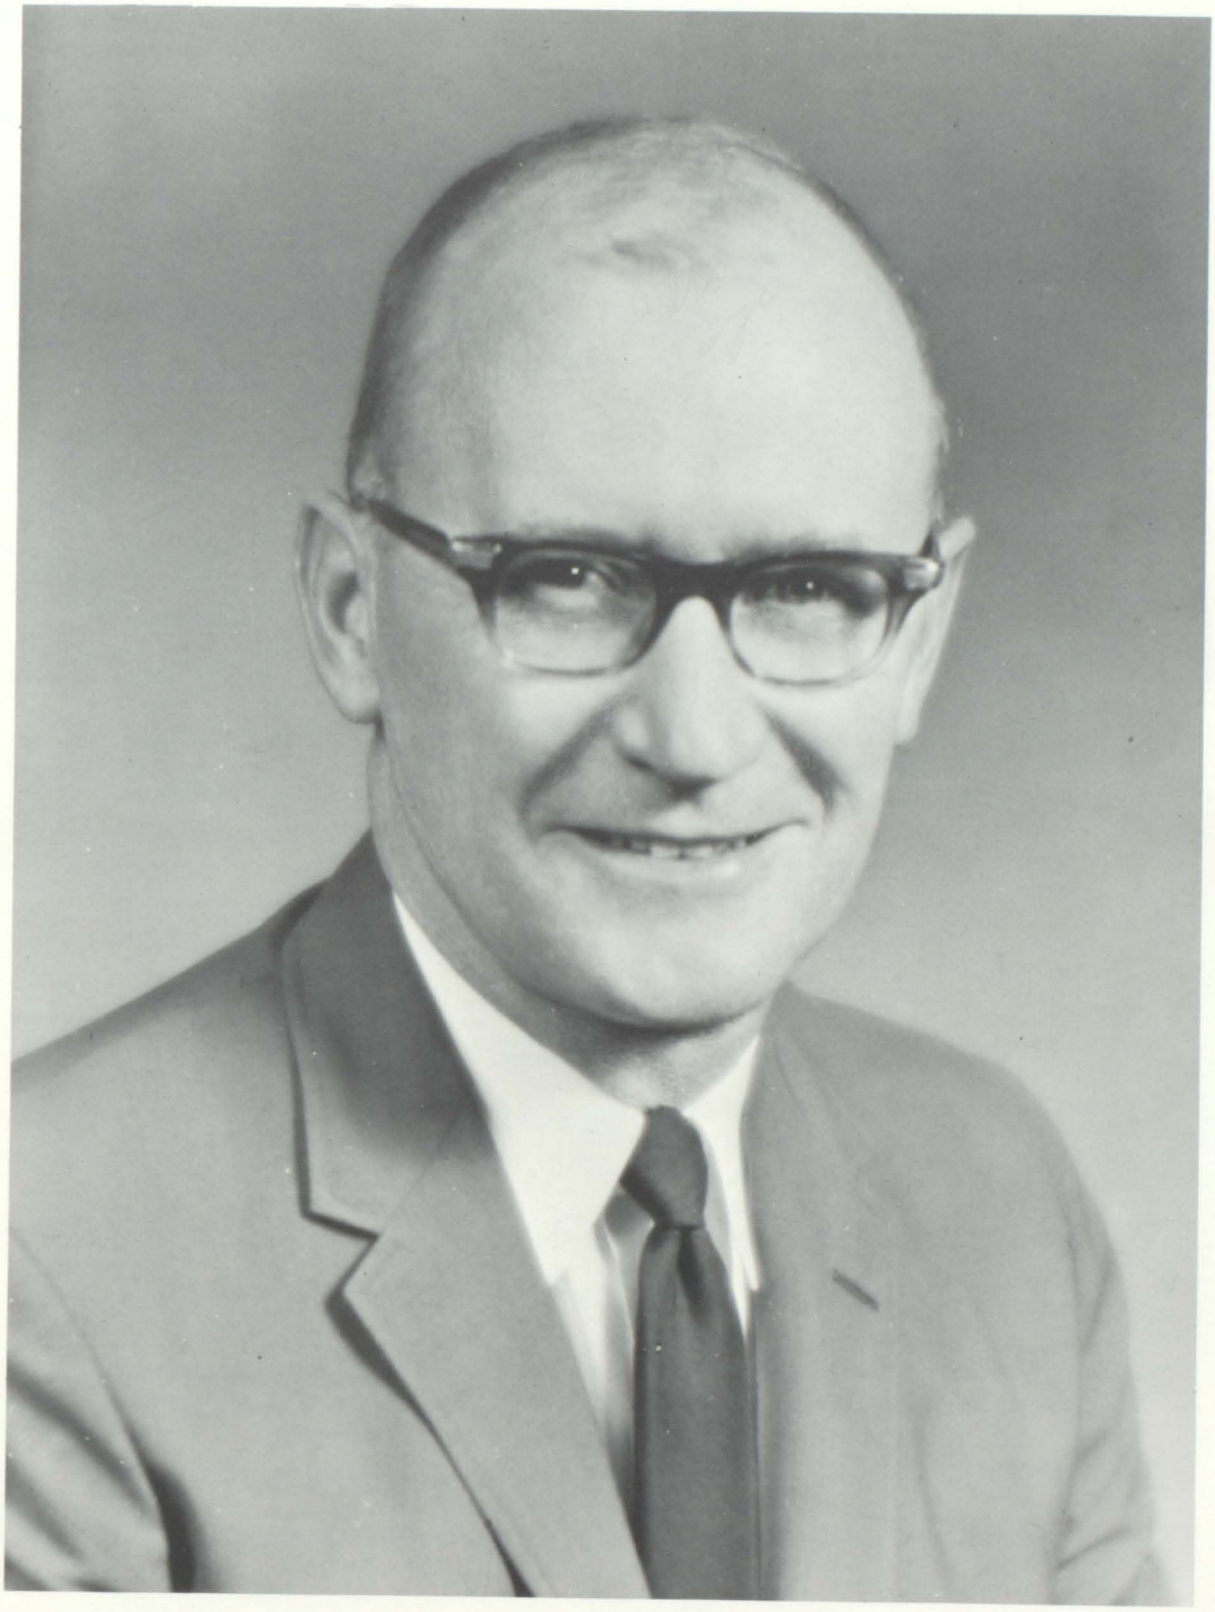
IN MEMORIAM

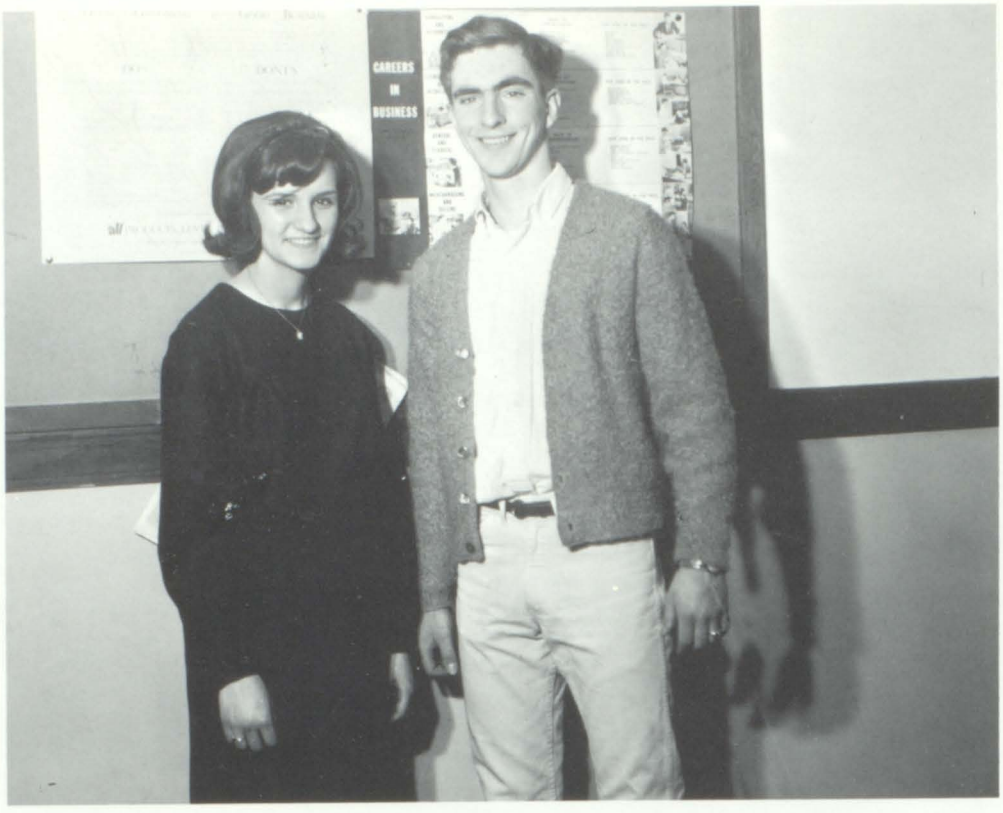


DON ARTHUR GROVES

1948 - 1965



We, the Senior Class of 1966, dedicate this year's Trojanaire to Mr. Walter D. Boyd in recognition of his fine service as both teacher and coach at Maroa-Forsyth High School throughout the past eighteen years. For your fine leadership, on and off the athletic field, we thank you.



THE EDITORS' CORNER

We, the Editors, present to you this 1966 Trojanaire with the hope that it will preserve the happy moments of this school year.

May this book bring you many hours of pleasure.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

As you leave Maroa-Forsyth High School, I want you to know that you have our sincere wishes for happiness and success. I also want you to know that we will continue to help and serve you in any way we can.

Never before have your opportunities been so great or your responsibilities so many. I hope you have learned your subject matter well, but more important, I hope you have learned those intrinsic values that will make you a better citizen.

It has been a great pleasure to work with you.

CLASS HISTORY

In 1962, our class of 71 members entered Maroa-Forsyth High School as humble freshmen. Our sponsor for that year was Mr. Frank Johnson. For our class officers we chose: Larry Murphy, President; Jerry Davenport, Vice-president; Jane Morrisey, Secretary; Darrell Woolums, Treasurer; and Johnette DeCicco, Reporter. For our first Homecoming, we chose Barbara Traxler, Johnette DeCicco, Rick Leslie, and Darrell Woolums as our queen and king candidates. Our class won first prize with the float, "Sink the Pirates." During the year we lost David Archer, Earl Bush, Roger Garren, David Hazen, Charlene Hitchens, Frank Owens, Bill Sanders, Pat Wikoff, Becky Moore, John Buchen, and David Bailey. We gained Ed Mardis.

In 1963, we began our sophomore year with 60 members. Mrs. Patricia Maxwell was our sponsor. To represent our class we chose: Darrell Woolums, President; Rick Leslie, Vice-president, Janice Day, Secretary, and Tony Keyes, Treasurer. Our Homecoming float, "Pull the Comets Down" did not place. We chose Barbara Traxler, Viola Grissom, Mike Woodard, and Rick Leslie as our candidates. During the year, we lost George Flowers, Larry Murphy, Linda Surrena, Janet Pygott, and Meredith Hall. We gained Decie and Larry Huffaker.

In the fall of 1964, we entered Maroa-Forsyth High as upperclassmen. Our 62 member class had Mr. Johnson for its sponsor. As class officers, we chose: Ron Ellis, President; David Kinkaid, Vice-president; Viola Grissom, Secretary, Tony Keyes, Treasurer, and Janice Day, Reporter. For the Homecoming festivities, we chose Pat Weaver, Nancy Meador, Dennis Lienhart, and Mike Woodard as candidates. Our float, "Blow 'em Down", took first prize. During the year our class presented the annual Junior Play. Our play, entitled "The Skeleton Walks", was a huge success. The long awaited Prom, the theme of which was, "Rhapsody in Starlight" bloomed into a blissful evening. During the year we lost J. R. Buggar, Melvin Buggar, Larry Huffaker, and Jack Closser. We gained Pat Weaver, Mickey Steinman, and Larry Larsen.

In 1965, we entered our alma mater for our final year. Our 56 member class, sponsored by Mr. Dennis Campbell and Mr. Larry Brandt, chose class officers as follows: Henry Simpson, President; Jerry Davenport, Vice-president, Nancy Meador, Secretary, Pat Weaver, Treasurer; Dan Marsh, Reporter; and Steve Thrall, Sgt.-at-Arms. Our Homecoming float, "Wipe 'em Out", failed to place. As candidates for Homecoming we chose: Linda Meece, Nancy Meador, Dan Marsh, and Jerry Davenport. Our Senior Play, "Gramercy Ghost", was an even greater success than our Junior Play. During our Senior year, we lost Janet Atz, Paula Beard, Judy Hall, Ray Klepzig, Jane Morrisey, and Patricia Robinson. We gained Ray Price and Barry Williams.

TO THE FACULTY:

CLASS PROPHECY

CAROLINE BARNETT, world famous singer, now does all the singing commercials for Kellogg's Cereals.

BOB BINGAMON is now English teacher at M.F.H.S. Jerry Lienhart, JR. is very quiet in class. Bob once hit his father with a sledge hammer!

JANET BOOMER owns a Hawaiian Dance Studio. Thank you, Mrs. Wood!

JERRY DAVENPORT is a football coach. He is quite an expert on teaching the art of tackling. (GIRLS!!)

JANICE DAY is still nursing her sore little finger. I guess it comes from wrapping Tony around it all these years.

JOHNETTE DECICCO is still spending 10 hours with Mr. Young. She just can't seem to keep from calling him "Brian".

RON ELLIS is giving trumpet lessons. Thanks to Mrs. Johnson's efforts!

LESLIE GARDNER is now a famous comedian, magician, and acrobat. He will soon be featured at an assembly here at M.F.H.S.

VIOLA GRISSOM is now manager of Avon Products. Ding! Dong!

KAREN and SHAREN GROVES are now doing Doublemint commercials. In their spare time they are doing ads for "Certs".

DICK HOWELL is now a doctor. He recently invented a pill to make people grow. His first patient was Mrs. Pam Howell.

SHARON HUPP LOWE is a diamond expert; she just can't seem to decide which one to keep.

DECIE HUFFAKER owns Huffaker's Auto Wrecking. He got his practice in Maroa.

STAN IRVIN is now a famous forest ranger in Decatur's Central Park. After all, Smokey the Bear can't be everywhere.

TONY KEYES is the proud owner of the world's largest collection of Dixie Cups. He stores them in the back seat of his car.

MARGO KLEPPER is now Mrs. Darrell Miller. Most of her time is spent watching the 7 little Millers.

DAVID KINKAID now has his own barber shop. His business thrives around time for basketball tryouts.

LARRY LARSEN owns Shopper's World in Decatur. That's really working your way up!

BEVERLY LEACH has finally found "the right man" for her. By the way, it's the tenth right man in the last nine years.

RICK LESLIE is now basketball coach at M.F.H.S. Now he knows what Mr. Walker had to go through!

DENNIS LIENHART is still working his way through college by hiding out in Lover's Lane with his trusty camera - selling the pictures later.

JERRY LIENHART is now president of the Jerry Lienhart Fan Club. We understand the membership is one. Guess who?

BILL MCGUIRE is still trying to explain to Mrs. Wood that he does not ride a Honda. It is a Yamaha. Y-A-M-A-H-A!

LINDA PORTER MCKEE is part-time secretary, full-time mother. If she isn't hearing the tap-tap of her typewriter, it's the pitter-patter of little feet.

ED MARDIS better known as "Ed the Red" has just been named Mr. World. Guess those muscles were good for something.

DAN MARSH is now owner of Barding Pontiac. He decided if he couldn't beat 'em, he'd join 'em. But, he still calls them "dogs" instead of "tigers".

ETHEL MATHEWS is now the owner of a hearing aid factory. She has a thriving business selling them to people who want to hear her.

JESSE MATHEWS now owns Squeak's Pool Hall. It saves a lot of money when you own the place!

NANCY MEADOR is a cheerleader at Brown's Business College where she is brushing up her shorthand and typing.

LINDA MEECE is now a famous make-up artist for Paramount Studios. She got her start in the Junior and Senior Plays.

DARRELL MILLER is a prosperous farmer. He raises vegetables to feed all the little Millers.

JACK MOSLEY still thinks he's the Purple Elf, and he refuses to give up his itty-bitty skate board.

CHESTER OHLEMEYER is now a skilled and famous cabinetmaker. Who needs Mr. Jennings when we have Chester.

FRED PLUMMER owns a stockyard in Chicago. He had to get rid of his Ag projects.

RAY PRICE is now a photographer for the New York Times, but he still takes the pictures for the Trojanaire.

RON RUNYEN and a group of Hawaiian girls are having a contest to see who can grow the longest hair.

DANNY SCHICK is the only person who ever cleaned out a Volkswagon engine - comfortably!

SELWYN SHAW is a famous race driver. He has already won the Indy 500. Maybe someday he'll master Mason's parking lot.

HENRY SIMPSON just finished the third volume of his collection, "Is It True Blondes Have More Fun?"

BUTCH SMITH is one of Mike Windlan's regular customers.

MICKEY STEINMAN now owns and operates that famous summer resort - Montezuma Hills.

CONNIE STONE is a dedicated nurse at D&MC Hospital, and we're trying to get her to give the Freshmen their eye and ear tests.

STEVE THRALL is principal at M.F.H.S. We understand that he and Mr. Wood had a few different ideas.

PAT TOWNSEND still plays his famous Pomp and Circumstance around graduation time every year at M.F.H.S.

BARB TRAXLER, now an optometrist, has devised contact lenses with little flashing lights, so they are easy to find if they fall out.

PAT WEAVER has just been defeated by Pam Ellis in a contest to see who could laugh loudest, longest and highest.

JIM WEIKLE recently re-opened the El-Roa Inn. We understand that Jim went into a slump when it burned down a few years ago.

STEVE WHITAKER has a famous rock'n'roll band. The group went straight to the top after Steve finally let his hair grow.

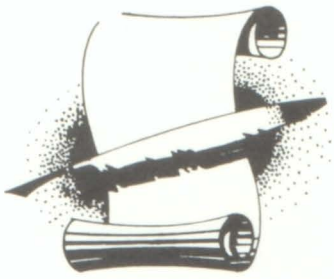
BARRY WILLIAMS is owner of General Electric, Inc. That shows you what tinkering with electronics can do!

MIKE WINDLAN has a beauty salon. He had to have someplace to get his hair straightened.

MIKE WOODARD is still running from some scraggly girl that came out of his Brylcream tube. That'll teach him to be a greaser!

DARRELL WOOLUMS is now a famous basketball player for the Boston Celtics. They're winning game after game.

CLASS WILL



I, Caroline A. Barnett, bequeath my ability to stay out of chorus for 4 years to anyone else that sings like a frog.

I, Bob Bingamon, bequeath my basketball uniform to Tom Odle in hopes that he will be a star player next year.

I, Janet Sue Boomer, bequeath my P.E. blouse to Mrs. Berry. If she can fix it, she can wear it.

I, Jerry Davenport, bequeath my tummy to Terry Lienhart who already has one started.

I, Janice Day, bequeath my ability not to stay mad at my boyfriend to my sister, Jo-ann, who could certainly use it.

I, Johnette DeCicco, bequeath the ability to understand my sense of humor to Mr. Young who will need it if he wants to preserve his sanity.

I, Ron Ellis, bequeath my ability to keep my hands to myself to my little sister Pam, who keeps them on everyone but herself.

I, Leslie Gardner, bequeath my ability to get along with Mrs. Neps to Marilyn Boomer who is in dire need of it.

I, Viola Grissom, bequeath my ability to serve the volleyball in P.E. class to Renee Stoutenborough who has a hard time getting it over the net.

We, Karen and Sharon Groves, bequeath our shyness to Yvonne Mowry and Debbie Dick, two freshmen who could certainly use some.

I, Dick Howell, bequeath my road map to Forsyth to anyone else who feels they need it.

I, Decie Huffaker, bequeath my car troubles to Allen Roberts, who could stand a few more.

I, Sharon Hupp, bequeath my love of English IV-B to any other Senior girl who likes good-looking men.

I, Stan Irvin, bequeath to B. Young, my knowledge as to who blew the hole in his car hood. It was ***.

I, Tony Keyes, bequeath my lucky baseball sweat socks to anyone who can stand the smell.

I, David Kinkaid, bequeath all the "Brownie points" available to Tom Odle and Dennis McKee so they can start off even next year.

I, Margo Klepper, bequeath my ability to always have something to say to Pam Ellis who is rapidly developing it.

I, Larry Larsen, bequeath my good disposition and smile to Mr. Boyd, who could use it in P.E.

I, Beverly Leach, bequeath my natural blonde hair to Margo Johnson.

I, Garrell Leslie, bequeath my dad's 1948 Plymouth to Mr. Walker, so he can use it for next year's Driver's Education car.

I, Dennis Lienhart, bequeath my ability to climb the rope to Allen Roberts who really needs a lift.

I, Jerry Lienhart, bequeath everything to myself because I can think of no one more deserving.

I, Bill McGuire, bequeath my bottle of peroxide to Leroy Beck, although he appears to be doing all right by himself.

I, Linda McKee, bequeath my smile to anyone who doesn't know how.

I, Ed Mardis, bequeath my pair of size 12 Beatle Boots to anyone who thinks he can fill them.

I, Dan Marsh, bequeath my space in the hedge in front of the High School to D. Walker who has a hard time parking the driver's training car.

I, Ethel Mathews, don't bequeath anything to anybody because I can't afford to be generous.

I, Nancy Meador, bequeath my ability to kill a fly in a typewriter to any other coordinated typist.

I, Linda Meece, bequeath a good pair of tennis shoes to Ruby Brown who certainly needs them. Just ask Mrs. Berry.

I, Darrell Miller, bequeath my ability to saw holes in the Speech class furniture during class to Roger Young.

I, Jack Mosley, bequeath my hair to Mr. Boyd, who seems to take a particular liking to it.

I, Chester Ohlemeyer, bequeath my ability to climb the rope to Stuart Hall.

I, Fred Plummer, bequeath my ability to take a humorous viewpoint in band to Mrs. Johnson, who definitely needs it.

I, Ray Price, bequeath all my height and weight to Ray Halicki who needs it.

I, Ron Runyen, bequeath my ability to hear Mr. Boyd in P.E. and understand him to Wayne Hoffman. How many laps, Mr. Boyd?

I, Danny Schick, bequeath my ability to observe and obey all hunting laws to Tony Benton, who needs it badly.

I, Selwyn Shaw, bequeath my ability to get along with everyone, especially girls, to Mike Hassinger, who might need it; and my ability as a football player to Chuck Land who will definitely need it during next season.

I, Henry Simpson, bequeath my short unblonde hair to Mr. Walker.

I, Butch Smith, bequeath my new hairstyle to Mr. Wood.

I, Mickey Steinman, bequeath 423 pieces of bubblegum collected from under the seats in the gym to Mr. Wood, my beloved leader.

I, Connie Stone, bequeath my typewriter eraser to anyone that might need it in next year's 8th Hour Typing class.

I, Steve Thrall, bequeath my athletic ability to my little brother.

I, Patrick Townsend, bequeath my quiet, reserved personality and even temper to Jerry Hupp and David Harrelson who could stand the improvement.

I, Barbara Traxler, bequeath my promptness of always being on time everywhere I go to Pam McKinley.

I, Pat Weaver, bequeath my ability to get along with her brother to Cheryl Simpson.

I, Jim Weikle, bequeath my ability to keep in shape during football season to Ron Clark.

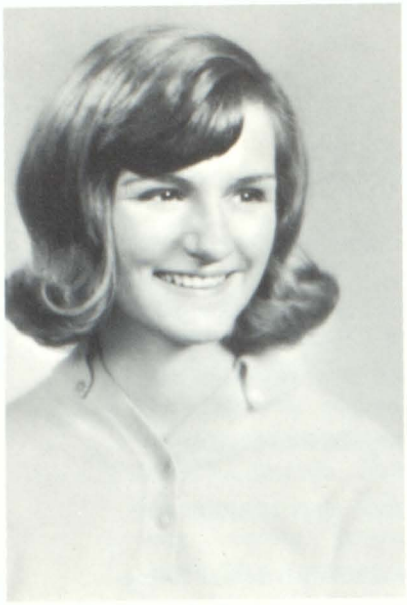
I, Steve Whitaker, bequeath nothing to Mr. Walker because that's what he gave me.

I, Barry Williams, bequeath a saw to Allen Roberts to cut the brain loss; a book, Be a Good Drill Sergeant in Sixteen Easy Lessons, to Mr. Boyd; and my superb driving ability to David Boomer and Jim Leach.

I, Mike Windlan, bequeath my curly hair to Brian Young, because his curls aren't as good as mine.

I, Mike Woodard, bequeath my good pair of suspenders to Mr. Lindberg.

I, Darrell Woolums, bequeath my clean way of living to Ron Clark, who already has a good start.



Due to an extreme closeness in grade averages as the 1966 Trojanaire goes to press, we are unable to determine whether Janice Day or Tony Keyes is class Valedictorian.

M. F. H. S. BAND

The Maroa-Forsyth High School Band is shown in the "M-F" formation. The band, directed by Mrs. Sharon Johnson, used this formation during the pre-game shows at all the home football games.

Mrs. Berry,

I sure hope I can be back into P.E. next year, cause I sure miss it. Although mine had quite a few differences that's alright. Cause we have alot of fun in P.E. anyway. Def. be looking forward to seeing you and everyone else and P.E. Dept ya. Take care, God Bless always

Love
Debbi.
